Scottish Printmakers Summer Show 2007

Glasgow Print Studio

Hand in date for submissions: Saturday 30th June 2007

Exhibition opening: 6pm – 8pm, Thursday 12th July 2007

Exhibition runs: Friday 13th July – Saturday 31st August 2007

Glasgow Print Studio would like to invite artists working in print in Scotland to submit new work for inclusion in the Scottish Printmakers Summer Show.

With this exhibition we want to demonstrate the quality and variety of printmaking in Scotland today. Works submitted must have employed some form of printmaking in their production; we welcome innovative ways of image production utilising printmaking as well as works made by more traditional methods.

Works must be within the dimensions of 56cm x 76cm portrait or landscape.

Works must be submitted unframed. Work will be selected by a committee.

Terms and Conditions:

1. Submitting work.

All work to be handed in to GPS or posted to arrive by the 30th June. We cannot accept late submissions.

Please ensure works sent by post or courier are well packaged – we will return any damaged work immediately on receipt and will not accept any responsibility for its condition.

2. The Selection Process All works sent for exhibition will be placed before the Summer Exhibition selection committee. The Selection Committee may decide to accept or reject any work submitted for the Summer Exhibition at its sole discretion. The Selection Committee's decision is final.

If you need to change your submission or withdraw please notify GPS immediately.

We will notify all entrants by Tuesday 10th July as to whether their work will be included in the exhibition.

3. Exhibition of work.

All work will be offered for sale. GPS commission will be 40% + vat of the selling price.

To display works we may need to attach fixings to the reverse of each work. Any fixings will be removable and will not damage the print in any way. Every care will be taken in handling works.

Submission of works assumes acceptance of these conditions.
